

429. Obligation to give information of small-pox.—

Where an inmate of any dwelling place within the city is suffering from small-pox, the head of the family to which the inmate belongs and, on his default, the occupier or person in charge of such place, shall inform the commissioner, the health officer, or the sanitary inspector of the division with the least practicable delay.

430. Prohibition of inoculation for small-pox.—(1)

Inoculation for small-pox is prohibited.

(2) No person who has undergone the operation of inoculation shall enter the city before the lapse of forty days from the date of inoculation without a certificate from a medical practitioner of such class as the commissioner may authorise to stating that such person is no longer likely to produce small-pox by contact or near approach.

CHAPTER XIX

RULES, REGULATIONS AND BYE-LAWS

Rules

431. Power of Government to make rules.—(1) The Government may after previous publication by notification make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may—

(a) provide for all matters expressly required or allowed by this Act to be prescribed ;

(b) regulate or prohibit the moving of any resolution or the making of any motions on or the discussion of any matter unconnected with the municipal administration ;

(c) prescribe the accounts to be kept by the corporation, the manner in which such accounts shall be audited and published and the conditions under which the rate-payers may appear before auditors, inspect books and vouchers and take exception to items entered therein or omitted therefrom ;

(d) prescribe the forms of all registers, reports and returns, the manner in which such registers shall be maintained, the dates on which the reports and returns shall be made and the officers to whom they shall be sent, as also of warrants and notices of sale ;

(e) regulate the sharing between local authorities of the proceeds of the profession tax, tax on carriages and animals, tax on carts and other tax or income levied or obtained under this or any other Act ;

(f) prescribe the powers of auditors, inspecting and superintending officers authorised to hold inquiries to summon and examine witnesses, and to compel the production of documents and all other matters connected with audit, inspection and superintendence ; and

(3) The Government may by notification and after previous publication make rules altering, adding to, or cancelling any of Schedules to this Act except Schedules XII and XIII.

(4) All references made in this Act to any of the aforesaid schedules shall be construed as referring to such schedules as for the time being amended in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3).

(5) In making any rule, the Government may provide that a breach thereof shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

(6) Every rule made under this section or any other provisions of this Act shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before each House of the State Legislature while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the sessions immediately following both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall from the date on which the modification or annulment is notified by the State Government in the official Gazette have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

432. Power to make regulations.—The corporation may with the previous approval of the Government by notification make regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder in respect of matters which are required to be provided for by regulations by this Act.

433. Power to make bye-laws.—Subject to the provisions of this Act, the rules and regulations the corporation may make bye-laws,—

(1) for all matters expressly required or allowed by this Act to be provided for by bye-laws;
